INTROVERT/EXTROVERT QUIZ

1. I do not like spending time by myself.
   1  2  3  4  5
   Disagree  Agree

2. On a weekend, I would rather attend a big party than spend a quiet night with a couple of friends.
   1  2  3  4  5
   Disagree  Agree

3. I prefer working as a team to working alone.
   1  2  3  4  5
   Disagree  Agree

4. I have no problem with big crowds and noise.
   1  2  3  4  5
   Disagree  Agree

5. When talking to others, I usually say what’s on my mind as soon as it pops into my head.
   1  2  3  4  5
   Disagree  Agree
I just really don’t like being the center of attention that much. It’s kind of ironic.

— Jimmy Fallon

People aren’t brave for not being afraid of anything, but they are brave when they stand up to their fears.

— Anonymous
Everyone shines given the right lighting: For some it is a Broadway spotlight. For others, a lamplit desk.

“I shall explain how you should become accustomed to the practice of humility in your daily life. Let every person you meet seem superior to you in your own eyes. And if the person is poor and you are richer or wiser, think to yourself that they are more righteous than you are.”

Susan Cain

Ramban
Each of us must confront our own fears, must come face to face with them. How we handle our fears will determine where we go with the rest of our lives. To experience adventure or to be limited by the fear of it.

“Have no fear of perfection—you'll never reach it.”

Judy Bloom

“Salvador Dali”

Salvador Dali
Don’t let the fear of striking out hold you back.

“...”
Babe Ruth

You can’t always be the best. You have to remember that everyone makes mistakes sometimes.

“...”
Aly Raisman